

Introduction to Northern Research and Issues

Knowledge Mobilization and Sharing

October 31 to November 3, 2023

Auberge Duchesnay

140 Mnt de l'Auberge, Ste-Catherine-de-la-Jacques-Cartier

---

[Show
location
in Google
Maps](#)

Tuesday, October 31st | Welcome | Maïanthème room

16 h

Opening words

- Jean-Éric Tremblay, Scientific Director, INQ
- Nadine Rousselot, Director of First Peoples Affairs, ULaval
- Marie-Eve Marchand and Marie-France Gévry, training facilitators

17 h

Icebreaker activity

Who are you? Introducing yourself outside the academic arena

18 h-20h

Dinner

20 h-22 h

Activities and discussions around the fire

Introduction to Northern Research and Issues

Knowledge Mobilization and Sharing

Wednesday, November 1 | Collaborative research in an Indigenous context

7 h-8 h Breakfast

8 h-10 h Northern research ecosystem
Jean-Éric Tremblay
From research on Inuit to research for and by Inuit
Marie-Eve Marchand

10 h-10 h 30 Coffee break

10 h 30-12 h Collaborative research in an Indigenous context : the importance of mindset
Weaving Indigenous and scientific knowledge
Catherine-Alexandra Gagnon

12 h-13 h 30 Lunch

13 h 30-15 h Guided discussion circle
Issues, challenges and benefits of conducting research in an Indigenous context

15 h-15 h 30 Coffee break

15 h 30-17 h 30 Sharing experiences on co-constructed research projects

- Labrador tea project at Whapmagoostui-Kuujuarapik
Normand Voyer et Anne Deslauriers
- Arctic borderlands : be slow be relevant
Catherine-Alexandra Gagnon

18 h-20 h Dinner

20 h Reflective feedback
Positionality and implications for the researcher in northern research
Catherine-Alexandra Gagnon

Introduction to Northern Research and Issues

Knowledge Mobilization and Sharing

Thursday, November 2 | Knowledge mobilization

7 h–8 h Breakfast

8 h–10 h Mobilizing and sharing knowledge

How to transmit and receive information

- Intervention in Indigenous schools | Normand Voyer
- Translate knowledge by art | Marie-France Gévry
- Radio | William Alger
- Discussion group – Mobilizing Inuit knowledge in contemporary practices | Marie-Eve Marchand

Epistemology and multicultural relations: the meaning of words

10 h–10 h 30 Coffee break

10 h 30–12 h Teamwork

- Working in a team of 3–4 people, you will develop innovative knowledge mobilization activities adapted to a variety of clienteles in relation to a specific project.

12 h–13 h 30 Lunch

13 h 30–16 h Teamwork

15 h–15 h 30 Coffee break

13 h 30–16 h Teamwork (cont'd)

16 h–18 h Blanket Exercise

18 h–20 h Dinner

20 h Muskox wool spinning activity

Rachel Guindon and Janice Parsons

